Mrs. Donna Smith-Walker

Follower of Christ, wife, mother, grandmother, friend and missionary. Donna's adult life and been spent serving God in the mission field at home and abroad, specifically in Rwanda and Uganda. Her relationship with Christ has both informed and directed her life decisions that speak of her desire, like Christ, to serve the "least of these" in a way that points them to the love of a God who saves, delivers and sets all captives free. Her hope for her life, is that in any small or great way, the love of God would reach through her and touch those whom she interacts with to the degree that whatever
